I. INTRODUCTION

In January 29 of 2005, I were setenced on supervised release by Honorable Judge Juan M. Pérez Giménez, United States District Judge for District of Puerto Rico to a period of 24 months.

We have complied with all the terms of our supervised release imposed by the court. What we are asking to the Honorable Judge Pérez Jiménez is that the time that we have been in supervised release before been sentence be counted for the 24 months of probation.

We have a lawfull business working very hard establishing a business named Unlimited Marine. Our main market is giving services to banks and financial institutions, specifically ack as the custodian and depositary in the repossession procedures in execution of federal and local laws. In some degree we are engaged in law enforcement matters.
